	Welcoming Christ We welcome Christ today as the woman of Shunem welcomed the prophet Elisha. But the Christ we welcome is the Christ who gave his life for others, and our celebration would be a mockery if we were not prepared to welcome him in one another, even in the least of his brothers and sisters	The Lord who is kind and full of compassion Our Lord has every claim to the title and majesty of kingship, and yet he comes to us in humility and gentleness. We pray that this spirit of Christ may also be in us.	Christ, the Sower We celebrate Christ who came to sow the seed of God's word in the world and we rejoice with him as we see everywhere around us the first-fruits of the Spirit and wait for the glory to be fulfilled	God our helper There is no other God than the one who cares for us in love and forgiveness. May we always be attentive to his voice.	The treasure we have found Solomon prayed for the wisdom to discern the true value of things. We scarcely need the wisdom of Solomon to realise that in finding the love of God and the kingdom of God we have found a treasure beyond price. It is in the joy of this realisation that we hold our celebration today
